A group of banks has submitted a petition to the FCC to weaken the Indiana Do Not Call List restrictions. I ask that you not grant permission to do this. It is such a joy to be able to spend a day in my own home without being bombarded by phone solicitors - I can't believe the difference this makes.

They don't seem to understand that everyone specifically signed up on the list to ensure their right to privacy. If a bank (or anyone else) called me at this point, I would be so irritated that I would not listen to their spiel and if I happened to already be a customer, I would cancel my account.

Please protect the restrictions as they stand and let us continue to enjoy the peace we've been granted.

Respectfully,
Donna Fujii
